

We are recruiting for an experienced Environmental Health and Safety Officer (EHS) at Greyhound.

Our business is built on our people. We employ over 200 people at our Crag Avenue facility and all of our profits are re-invested in the company.

We are committed to recycling and are constantly innovating and educating to reduce the amount of waste that goes to landfill.

All of our operational processes focus on facilitating recycling, composting and working towards a Greener, Cleaner world

Our EHS Officer will be responsible for ensuring that Greyhound have a first in class approach to the environment, health and safety and Quality control. Our ideal candidate must have a strong back ground in health and safety as well as be knowledgeable in environmental management, policies and regulations.

Key Responsibilities

- Responsible for managing and maintaining a high level of H&S compliance on and off site.
- Responsible for implementation and maintaining current procedures, policies and safe systems of work
- Case management of all incidents and accidents, liaising closely with the appropriate legal and insurance bodies and keeping senior management updated in a timely manner.
- Monitor relevant legislative updates, ensuring necessary changes are applied promptly
- Regularly review and update Company Risk Assessments, Safe Operating Procedures and Safety Statement, communicating updates Company wide
- Manage and update the Health & Safety plan to achieve and maintain the relevant Health & Safety management system standards.
- Maintaining a relevant, up to date and comprehensive safety statement for the Group.
- Maintaining a complete register of method statements and safety risk assessments relating to all aspects of jobs.
- Delivering Health & Safety induction programmes for new employees or contractors working on site
- Maintain accurate records of training and a training matrix data base.
- Anticipate and react swiftly to business needs and provide best practice Health & Safety solutions.
- Update and deliver safety tool box talks for all staff and maintain records of same.

- Investigate, record and report accidents, incidents and near misses promptly, ensuring any corrective actions are applied without delay & compliance reviewed thereafter.
- Work with the EPA, HSA, RSA and all relevant public bodies who visit the sites to ensure compliance with all relevant legislation and respond in a professional and timely manner
- Conduct regular internal environmental audits
- Conduct environmental testing and complete return to ensure the group complies with environment regulation and the environmental permits
- Keep up to date with waste industry best practice and other standards in health and safety domains.
- Developing an in depth understanding of technical processes and methods used throughout company operations.
- Maintain an up to date register of PPE uniform orders: Ensuring that all relevant employees have appropriate PPE uniform upon commencement with the company.
- Lead staff training on EHS and Health matters. Assist in the development of Toolbox talks.
- Promote a culture of safety, health, environmental responsibility, and quality excellence throughout the organisation.

Experience, Skills & Education:

- A degree in a Health and Safety is preferable.
- 3 years + industrial experience, ideally in the Waste industry
- Demonstrated competence in environmental regulations.
- Familiarity with ISO 14001 would be advantageous.
- Ability to read, analyse, and interpret technical data, and technical procedures.
- Ability to effectively present information and respond to questions from groups of the senior management team and regulators.
- Show a willingness and ability to collaborate with and influence others in a positive, team-based environment.
- Self-motivation with strong work ethic and organizational skills and ability to prioritize, schedule and plan.
- Ability and willingness to engage with systems and personnel.

Join a business that has a proven track record for training and development, internal promotion and progressing team members to the next stage of their career.

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent

Benefits:

- On-site parking

Supplemental pay types:

- Bonus pay